WE WISH YOU ABUNDANCE AND JOY IN

2022

We welcome all our stakeholders, well-wishers, donors, sponsors, and ambassadors to the year 2022. We are exceedingly grateful for your unwavering support through 2021. We hope that with your continued support and guidance we will make even greater impact and expand to more communities across Nigeria.

HFN 2021 in REVIEW

- HFN completed 6 Nurse A School Programs for a total of 7 programs.
- HFN conducted 7 Lectures via Zoom with an overall attendance of over 400 participants.
- HFN hired 2 New Operational Staff and 5 New Nurses.
- We grew our social media followership to over 1000 followers across Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn.
- Launched the smiling Nurse initiative to engage and foster healthy behaviors using social media
- Our Nurses had unique sickbay visits from over 7000 students and 400 teachers and staff.
- In 2021, through the Nurse a School program we had 7 community outreach programs with a reach of over 1000 individuals impacted.

Thank you again for a wonderful 2021 as we look forward to an even more successful and impactful 2022!!!

In SIGHT for 2022

HFN plans to continue the great work we started in 2020 and developed in 2021. We have developed and improved our programs over the last 2 years and want to fine-tune our approach in 2022 to ensure we are running a sustainable and impactful organization. In 2022 we plan to:

- Expand our Nurse A School Program to 12 Schools
- Focus strongly on fundraising and engage local and international grant opportunities to ensure long-term sustainability for our programs.
- Launch our Leadership and Management Certificate program.
- Launch our Adopt A PHC program.

HFN 1st Annual Conference

HFN hosted its first annual conference on the 9th and 10th of December in Ibadan, Oyo State. We held this end of the year conference to bring all our administrative, operational, and nursing staff together to celebrate the year and renew our passion and energy going into the new year. We were also joined by the Principal and Vice-Principal of our inaugural Nurse A School location in Ibadan. Over 2 days in Ibadan, all our staff had opportunities to meet one other, reflect on our past activities and engagements, and discuss our successes and setbacks over the past year. HFN founder Dr. Akintade also joined as he led the team through its organizational direction and expectations for the year 2022.

During the conference, Awards were presented to the following individuals for the following categories:

- Dr. Abimbola Akintade: Outstanding Leadership, Support and Dedication to HFN
- Nurse Adeola Luro: Most Innovative Nurse
- Mrs. Olayiwola: Most Supportive School Principal
- Methodists Girls High School: Best School Health Club of the Year
- Nurse Folasade Ajiboye: Exemplary Leadership and Management of the Nurse A School Program
- Ms. Karena Youdiwei: Outstanding Growth.
- Mr. Adamove Osho: Outstanding Leadership, Support and Dedication to the Nurse A School Program

NURSE A SCHOOL LAUNCH

HFN Launched the 6th Nurse A School location at St. Stephens Grammar School in Ondo Town, Ondo State.

This sickbay was sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Fadayomi and family. HFN founder Dr. Abimbola Akintade was on site to manage the occasion and facilitated the launch of the event. We were also joined by the Fadayomis, as well as the Akintade family and other guests. The launch event included an introductory speech by Dr. Akintade, an inspirational address by Mr. and Mrs. Fadayomi and a heartfelt appreciation from Pastor Olatunji (Principal). Attendees participated in a tour of the school premises and the Sickbay. Nurse Tayelolu who oversees the sickbay also had a screening session where she checked vitals of some of the guests. HFN is exceedingly grateful to all the supporters and well-wishers that were present at the launch.

Dr. Dipo Fadayomi

Our donor spotlight for this month goes to Dr. Dipo Fadayomi. Dr. Fadayomi is a primary care physician in North America. He is one of our monthly donors and for the year 2021, he sponsored (paid the salary) of a school nurse for the entire year. You and other donors are the reason we are able to demonstrate such significant outcomes in such a short time. HFN says a BIG THANK YOU to Dr. Dipo Fadayomi.
